AERONAUTICAL INFORMATION CIRCULAR

Validation of Foreign Aircraft Maintenance Organizations

The Civil Aviation Authority of Zimbabwe will validate a foreign Aircraft Maintenance Organization Approval issued by another Contracting State for the purpose of maintaining type certified aircraft and/or aircraft components for a period not exceeding three months when the following conditions are met:

- a) The foreign organisation submits to CAAZ a current AMO approval, Specific Operating Provisions and Capability list issued by a local CAA.
- b) The foreign AMO submits State CAA AMO Approval Requirements to CAAZ.
- c) The validation fee prescribed in the CAAZ schedule of fees is paid at CAAZ accounts offices.

At the expiry of the validation period CAAZ will issue a Zimbabwe AMO Approval in accordance with the Civil Aviation (Air Navigation) Regulations currently in force when the following conditions are met:

- a) A copy of the Procedures Manual/Maintenance Organisation Exposition including the Quality Manual by the local CAA is submitted to CAAZ for approval.
- b) The local AMO Certificate is valid and current.
- c) CAAZ is allowed to conduct an audit inspection of the premise once very year.
- d) The AMO or Operator requiring its services meet the CAAZ inspectors allowance, AMO fees and travel expenses.
